People First Gen2

Run by & for young adults with developmental disabilities

People First Gen2 is a program of
The Arc of Lucas County Inc

Vision

Individuals with developmental disabilities develop their capacities, strengths and skills to shape their own lives and succeed as members of the community.

Purpose

To have fun, make friends, and learn how to get what you need in your life.

Program

A mix of trainings (held at 5605 Monroe St) and gatherings at local "fun" destinations. Members learn about life as an adult, the responsibilities and rights they have as adults, and increase their communication and social skills.

Must provide own transportation

When: 1st and 3rd Thursday each month, 4:30-6:00 p.m. Participants must attend training sessions in order to attend community excursions.

Who can join: Young adults with developmental disabilities, ages 18-25.

How to join: Call The Arc at 419-882-0941, ext 2 or email: jeanb@arclucas.org

Cost: $25 membership fee per year. Partial scholarships are available.

Plus: personal spending money
