United Way Hosts Second Annual “Charity Chocolate Crawl”

WHAT: United Way in Wood County (UWWC), an area-office of United Way of Greater Toledo, will be hosting and organizing Downtown Bowling Green’s second annual “Charity Chocolate Crawl”.

Over 40 local businesses and United Way nonprofit partners will be handing out delicious chocolate treats to participants throughout the night. The “Charity Chocolate Crawl” will be serving as the kickoff event for BG Winterfest. All proceeds raised from the “Charity Chocolate Crawl” benefit UWWC and the many local programs supported by United Way funding.

This event is currently SOLD OUT. Over 500 tickets were purchased, placing this year’s “Charity Chocolate Crawl” at max capacity.
