United Way hosts “Voices of 2-1-1” Event

WHO: 150+ Local United Way Donors
Amanda Davis, Community Member Helped by 2-1-1
Jason Kucsma, Exec. Director, Toledo Lucas Co. Public Library
Kim & Bob LaClair, Regional President, 5/3 Bank NW Ohio
Wendy Pestrue, President & CEO, United Way

WHAT: To continue United Way of Greater Toledo’s “2-1-1 Day” celebrations, this evening, Leadership ($1,000+) and Tocqueville ($10,000+) donors are invited to a special gathering, entitled, Voices of 2-1-1.

During this event, attendees will hear from community leaders and United Way staff on how 2-1-1 intends to position itself as the voice of the community, via responding to local needs, increasing resources to meet those needs and advocating for programs that can address emerging needs.

United Way 2-1-1 is a free, 24/7, 365-day information and referral service resource available to all residents within Lucas, Wood and Ottawa County. Individuals who are seeking health and human resources, such as shelter, food, clothing and utility assistance, can call or text 2-1-1 and speak with a trained Community Resource Advisor (CRA.)

WHEN: Tuesday, February 11, 2020
5:30 – 8:00 p.m.
Program begins at 6:15 p.m.

WHERE: Fifth Third Bank Lobby & Auditorium
One Seagate
Toledo, OH, 43604
